

Richard House Children's Hospice events

There are many ways in which you can make a difference and support Richard House Children's Hospice.

Richard House Children's Hospice, in Beckton, Newham, cares for life-limited children and their families from across east and north east London.

With more than 250 families on its books, it is estimated in excess of £3.1 million needs to be raised to keep the hospice functioning each year.

And while some of this comes from Government funding and grants, the majority is raised through the kindness and generosity of the hospice's supporters.

To help them raise their money - and to keep them fit and healthy in the process - the fundraising team at Richard House Children's Hospice has organised a range of one-off and annual events.

Everything from midnight walks to treks across the Sahara and UK marathons are covered.

So if you want to help out, click on the links to the side and get in touch with our events team.

Every penny you raise will help us give our children the care they deserve.
