Richard House Children's Hospice, in Newham, East London, needs to raise £3.1 million a year in order to stay open

Richard House Children's Hospice, in Newham, East London, is dependent upon the generosity of companies, trusts, individuals and communities for the vast majority of the funding we receive.

On top of statutory funding from local and central Government, we require more than £1.8 million from fundraising and that is where you can help London's first children's hospice.

There are several ways in which you can donate.

You can donate online by simply following the links on this website. Click on this link to make a one-off donation to Richard House.

Every pound you can give us will be used to help us provide care and support to the 170 children and young people that use our services as well as their families.

Alternatively, you can set up a regular donation here. This will ensure we have your continued support for as long as you want.

If you would prefer you can also send a cheque or postal order made payable to Richard House Trust to us at Richard House Children's Hospice, Richard House Drive, Beckton, London E16 3RG, UK.

Finally, you can also donate or set up a regular donation via the telephone by calling 0207 540 0229.
