

Schools

Richard House Children's Hospice, based in Beckton, East London, is proud of the links it has with local schools

Whether you are a pre-school, infant, primary, secondary school, college or university there are many ways that you can help.

Richard House has a variety of ideas we could discuss with you to help you start fundraising for us.

Are you having difficulty finding new ways to explain parts of the National Curriculum? Richard House can help!

We're on hand to assist with tailor made school lessons, sponsored activities and Rag Weeks. We can help you make the most of your activity, raising the profile of your school along the way.
